ACCOUNTING AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

ACCOUNTING
+ VIRGINIA TECH =
OPPORTUNITY

Accounting is the “language of business.” Building your knowledge of accounting will enable you to:

- Determine whether companies are reporting correctly to investors and other stakeholders
- Own a business and know how to make better decisions
- Be a consultant or analyst that works with a variety of organizations
- And so much more! The opportunities are endless!

Faculty

More than 30 professors and doctoral students will help guide your success. For direct phone or email addresses visit: acis.pamplin.vt.edu/dir.html. Not sure where to start? Email our ACIS department at acis@vt.edu and you will be connected with one of our outstanding faculty members.

Checksheets

Graduation requirements for students are determined by either the calendar year in which you plan to graduate or the academic year you entered the university. Visit tinyurl.com/4kurch9y.

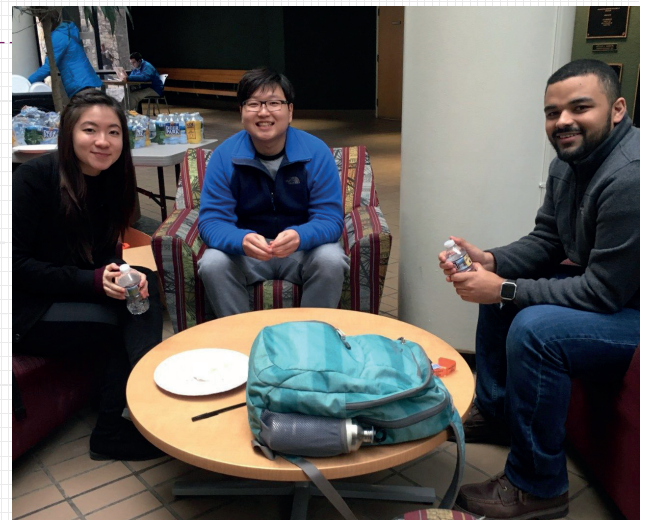

Student Orgs

Campus student groups that offer opportunities to cultivate leadership skills and build a social and professional network include, but are not limited to:

- Accounting Society
- BAP
- NABA
- ALPFA
- CWIB

Find additional groups at: tinyurl.com/mr2ut7bv.

Tutoring

We have top graduate assistants available to tutor you in several ACIS courses, free of charge. Additionally, tutoring is available through the Student Success Center and certain student organizations at little or no cost to you. Visit tinyurl.com/332ft76z.

Scholarships

Our very successful and generous ACIS alumni afford us the ability to award over $500,000 in scholarships every year to approximately 100 ACIS students. The application deadline for the upcoming academic year is generally January 15th. For more information regarding scholarships, please visit: tinyurl.com/3skbs4bx.

DEIB (Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging)

The Pamplin College of Business regards diversity as a source of strength and pride. All students, regardless of their background, race, color, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, veteran status, national origin, religion, or political affiliation, deserve and are promised equal opportunity to an education in the Pamplin College of Business. Visit: tinyurl.com/y4cz4cbz.

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) has developed a comprehensive pipeline enhancement plan intended to contribute to the number of ethnic minority students enrolling and graduating from accounting programs. Visit: tinyurl.com/346xr69x.

MACIS

Our Master of Accounting and Information Systems (MACIS) Program prepares students for professional careers with specializations in accounting analytics, audit, financial services, information systems, and taxation.

- For students who enroll as undergraduates and who are interested in becoming a CPA, we have a special 152-Hour Program that combines undergraduate and graduate course work.
- Partnership with KPMG's Master of Accounting with Data and Analytics (MADA) Program includes courses led by ACIS faculty who have undergone intensive training with state-of-the-art software and methodologies.

Details on these programs: tinyurl.com/ymswfk58.

Career Resources

CPA EXAM RESOURCES

One of many websites to guide you toward your best CPA results is www.thiswaytocpa.com/segmented-landing/exam-101/. We also have an agreement with Becker, a CPA Exam study material provider, that enables us to provide you with free access to their study materials when enrolled in certain ACIS courses.

CAREER SERVICES

Our ACIS faculty truly care about student success and take the time to provide career advice and connect students with recruiters from a wide variety of employers. The Career Services office helps students develop professionally and provides resources and opportunities to assist in their job search; helping students to understand, navigate, and connect to the job market.
